Kamilya Lowana White is a proud Aboriginal artist, born, raised and creating artworks in Naarm (Melbourne) on Wurundjeri Country. Ever since she was a child, she has been passionate about art, and enjoys creating with and exploring a range of techniques and mediums. Stemming from her Kija Bardi heritage on her father's side, Kamilya is particularly interested in creating contemporary Aboriginal paintings, inspired by the land, storytelling and relationships with others, all depicted with a modern twist. Kamilya finds this specific art style therapeutic and uses it to express and ground herself, while deepening her connection with culture.

Yooroorroom is a representation of the native shrubs and plant life that thrive across scrub country. It honours the unique beauty, resilience, and richness of this landscape. Yooroorroom invites reflection on our connection to Country, reminding us to tread gently and care deeply for the land, for every action we take leaves a lasting mark that shapes the story of this place for generations to come.
