Kamilya Lowana White is a proud Aboriginal artist, born, raised and creating artworks in Naarm (Melbourne) on Wurundjeri Country. Ever since she was a child, she has been passionate about art, and enjoys creating with and exploring a range of techniques and mediums. Stemming from her Kija Bardi heritage on her father's side, Kamilya is particularly interested in creating contemporary Aboriginal paintings, inspired by the land, storytelling and relationships with others, all depicted with a modern twist. Kamilya finds this specific art style therapeutic and uses it to express and ground herself, while deepening her connection with culture.

Gibin Barr seeks to reflect the spirit of native flora and fauna. Soft earthy tones of ochre, green, and brown flow together to represent the everchanging landscapes of the bush – eucalyptus leaves, vibrant wildflowers, and the winding branches of native trees. It is a celebration of Country which strives to capture the beauty of the bushland, the resilience of the land, and the quiet sense of peace that comes from being immersed in the outdoors.
